

Call for Artists
Tryon Arts and Crafts School's
Black & White Show and Gala
At the Gallery of Tryon Arts and Crafts School
September 15 through October 31

Tryon Arts and Crafts School is extending an invitation for entries into our elegant Black& White Show and Gala. This is an exhibit open to all emerging or professional artists, who work in a variety of media and disciplines from clay, jewelry, wood, fiber, collage, glass, forge, photography or painting. The take-in dates for the show are Thursday August 31st through Thursday September 7th, between the hours of 9am and 5pm (9AM to 1PM on Saturday September 9th). PLEASE NOTE: No entries will be accepted after 5pm on September 7th without prior approval by administrator Kai Hamilton.

Please read the following information regarding eligibility and requirements for the show. Contact the executive director, Cathy Fischer, by phone (828.859.8323) or by email (director@tryonartsandcrafts.org) with any questions.

Eligibility and Media

- Work to be exhibited must have been completed in the last year and not been previously exhibited in a Tryon Arts and Crafts show, and must be black, shadings of black (gray), white or B&W.
- Artists may enter up to 5 original pieces.

Requirements

- The entry form (attached) must be completed and submitted with work when delivering to Tryon Arts and Crafts School at 373 Harmon Field Road in Tryon, NC.
- Please label all artwork with your name and the title of the work.
- Work must be properly prepared for gallery presentation. Any wall art must be prepared with secure hanging wires on the back of the piece. If you have any questions about this, please feel free to contact us. We are here to help!
- Note that TACS has the right to determine placement of the artwork at the show.
- All work submitted will remain on exhibit through October 31st, after which point it will be available for pick up. On the night of October 31st at 7 PM there will be a reading of winning ghost stories of TACS' The Apparitionist competition.
- Artists must pick up unsold work no later than November 30th. Please note: Work left more than 30 days after the end of the show may be charged a storage fee; we simply do not have enough room to store unexhibited work.

Sales

Pieces sold during the show may be picked up by purchaser at Tryon Arts and Crafts School on/after November 1. All sales will be subject to 40% commission. Proceeds of sales will be paid to artisans by November 30th. Tryon Arts and Crafts School will be responsible for collecting and paying all sales tax.

Liability Clause

While we will take the utmost care of your work while it is in our possession, Tryon Arts and Crafts School cannot be responsible for loss or damage to artwork submitted to this show. Artists are responsible for insuring their own art. If you have a display case that you would like to use, labeled with your name and phone number, please feel free to bring with you.

Space Availability

This show is open to those that meet the listed criteria and we encourage all interested artists to participate. However, as with any gallery there is limited space. Should the space become full, preference will be given to quality, originality and work that best fits the theme of the show.

Reception

The gala opening reception will be held on Friday, September 15th from 6 to 8 p.m. in The Heritage Gallery at Tryon Arts and Crafts, and artists are urged to attend with your friends. All guests are invited to dress in black and white. This elegant fundraising event has an admission charge of $20 per person, but a donation of any amount would be appreciated from contributing artists at the door.

I have read the above information and I agree to those terms.
